PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Dear Pirate Community,

I hope that this newsletter finds you and your family healthy and safe as we forge ahead at the start of the second semester of school. Even though we continue to face many challenges that have arisen due to COVID-19, the resiliency of our staff and students to overcome those obstacles makes me proud to be part of this community each day. This incredible work is in support of student performance on all Advanced Placement, Cambridge AICE, and state assessments that our students will be required to take later this spring.

We are excited to announce that our English teacher, Lisa Branno-Penwell, was chosen as the Teacher of the Year for Charlotte County Public Schools for the 2021/22 school year. Mrs. Branno-Penwell is a proud alumna of Port Charlotte High School and has been a wonderful educator at her home school for almost 20 years. This recognition is a direct result of the hard work, selfless attitude, and sacrifices Mrs. Branno-Penwell has made throughout her career in support of student success. Congratulations, Mrs. Branno-Penwell!

It was evident at the end of first semester that our rate of student attendance each day was having a negative impact on the total instructional time that our teachers had with their students. One of our goals this semester is to intervene early this semester and improve the daily attendance rate. Our families can help by ensuring that our students arrive to school on time each day, monitoring attendance in FOCUS, and discussing with your student the importance of having excellent daily school attendance. If our students are in front of their teachers, they will improve their academic standing and find success in each of their classes.

We are looking forward to celebrating the last semester of school with our seniors in the class of 2022. I just want to remind each of our seniors that it is never too late to get involved at school. There are many senior activities that remain and I encourage everyone to participate. I am excited to announce that our graduation ceremony is scheduled for May 18th at 7:30 pm and will be held at the Charlotte Sports Park (Tampa Bay Rays spring training baseball stadium). Seniors, enjoy the last half of your senior year and do everything required in order for you to participate in our graduation ceremony this year.

Stay healthy and safe!

NEW YEARS RESOLUTION

Woohoo! It's 2022 and we made it through 2021. The last two years have been tough and many of us are ready to look forward to a new and hopefully better year in 2022. However, we don't just have to hope. We can make it happen!

A good friend of mine, we will call her Liliith for the sake of this blog, expressed her lack of enthusiasm for setting a resolution this year. Here's how the conversation went:

Liliith - "Last year my goal was to read more. It started out great, I read 2 books during winter break. Then the kids went back to school and I went back to work. I bought several books I wanted to read. I even put them by my bed, but I never picked them up. I was tired, and well life just happened. I don't really want to feel like I failed at another resolution this year."

Me - "What did your reading plan look like?"

My friend - "Well I didn't really have one, just wanted to read more."

Resolution abandonment is more common than you think. In fact, around 80% of resolutions aren't kept. If you have made resolutions in the past and didn't stick with them, have no fear...10 super resolution tips are here!

- 1. Make it meaningful – The first step in creating your resolution is making sure that the resolution is something that means something to you. Don't make a resolution just to check off the box that you made one.
- 2. Make it realistic – Would I like to be a millionaire before the new year? Sure would. Is that realistic? Not even a little. Don't set yourself up to fail by creating a resolution that is impossible to achieve.
- 3. Write it down – Yes, this step is important. You are 42% more likely to achieve your goals when you write them down.
- 4. Create a plan – Without a plan, your resolution is nothing more than a wish. Take some time to outline all the steps to achieve your goal and dates you are planning to complete the steps by.
- 5. Be flexible – Life happens, and no one is perfect. You are going to make mistakes. You are going to miss a goal deadline at some point. This is where many people fail because they throw in the towel when their plans didn't go perfectly. Instead, allow yourself to be human, forgive yourself, and update your plan.
- 6. Learn from your mistakes – When you do have something that keeps you from hitting your small steps timeline, take a minute to evaluate why. This step is important not to beat yourself up, but rather to make efforts to avoid being delayed by this challenge again.
- 7. Create accountability – Some people keep their resolutions to themselves, and for some resolutions that is understandable. However, if you can create a support system you are more likely to succeed. So shout out your resolution from the rooftops to help keep yourself in check.
- 8. Keep track – tracking your success is important because you can take a look at where you started and where you are now. When you hit a plateau or even stumble a bit, you can look at this progress as a reminder that you have already come a long way, and you can do it.
- 9. Remind yourself – Keep reminders of your goals where you can see them. Put sticky notes on your bathroom mirror, set alerts on your phone, create a vision board, do whatever you have to do to keep your resolution in front of you to help remind you to keep moving forward. It is a great idea to do some positive affirmations when you see these reminders as well.
- 10. Reward yourself – When you reward yourself for each step you accomplish your brain releases positive emotions that help you keep the desire to keep moving forward. When you achieve your resolution, it will cause multiple benefits. You will feel good about completing it. Your self-esteem will be boosted. Depending on your resolution, your life will improve in some way.

You will be encouraged to continue moving in a positive direction and create more goals for yourself. Your children will notice this and be encouraged by it to do the same. Is it going to be easy? Well, a wise person once said something along the lines of...nothing worth doing is ever easy. You got this!

GATORMUN CONFERENCE

On January 22nd & 23rd, the PCHS Model United Nations debate team participated in the University of Florida's GatorMUN competition. 17 of our best and brightest discussed and proposed solutions to topics such as Mitigating Space Debris, Curbing Climate Change, Preventing Non-Communicable Diseases, and ending Child Slavery.

I am exceedingly proud to say that the team performed beyond expectation, bringing home the 1st Place Trophy! This is especially significant, as the majority of the team is new, competing for the first or second time in their careers this weekend. Individually, the following students received recognition in their groups as top competitors:

- Sophia Ruiz - 1st place representing China in the Disarmament and Security Council
- Cole Beiner - 2nd place as the Chief Medical Officer in the Alcatraz Crisis
- Emelia Valentz - 2nd Place as Katherine Graham in the Watergate Crisis
- Grant Ward - 2nd place in the Egyptian Command Council
- Kajsa Carlsen - 3rd Place - Ad-Hoc Crisis
- Cassidy Gibbs and Summerlin Williams - 3rd Place representing the United Kingdom in the World Health Organization
- Lelia Benitez and Genevieve Pollock - Best Position Paper as Russia in the World Health Organization
- Jonas Segur and Gabriel DeGuzman - Honorable Mention as Russia in the Commission on Outer Space
- Kaylee Decker - Honorable Mention as Russia in the Social, Cultural, and Humanitarian Committee

Please join me in congratulating these students for their hard work and dedication, as well as wishing them good luck for their next competition at Florida Gulf Coast University in March!

PCHS NJROTC

2021 Annual Military Inspection

This past December 2021, Port Charlotte High School NJROTC (Navy Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps) held an Annual Military Inspection (AMI), a yearly event in which all NJROTC units participate. The cadet personnel inspection, the ceremonial phase, a pass-in review, and a cadet staff brief are all part of AMI. Our guest inspector this year was USN Retired Lieutenant Commander Dempsey Barnes, the Senior Naval Science Instructor of North Port High School NJROTC. Commander Barnes inspected each cadet individually during the Personnel Inspection, quizzing them on their Navy Knowledge, and inspecting their uniform. Our Unit Commanding Officer, Cadet Lieutenant Commander Devin Richter, presented the Pirate Company and was the first to be inspected. The remaining Cadet Staff were then inspected as follows: Executive Officer, Cadet Lieutenant Mackenzie Gay, Operations Officer, Cadet Lieutenant Junior Grade Jazmin Reinhardt, and Senior Enlisted Advisor, Cadet Chief Select Salina Tuthill.

Immediately following Personnel Inspection, the Pirate Company marched to the football field, where parents and family members were invited to watch as the Cadets performed a Color guard and Drill Demonstration. Our Admin Officer, and one of our two Chief Selects for PCHS NJROTC, Cadet Chief Select Travis Waller, was the Master of Ceremonies (MC) for the event. Cadet Chief Select Waller introduced LCDR (ret.) Barnes as well as our SNSI, Lieutenant Commander (ret.) Sonja Harry, and our NSI, Chief Petty Officer (ret.) Geoffrey Dufur. Following them were our Principal, Mr. Long, and Assistant Principals Dr. Curtis and Mrs. Forbus, who were also invited to speak and observe the AMI. After the drill demonstration, our guest inspector, instructors, and faculty were invited to say a few words of congratulations, and all cadets were then dismissed to continue with their day, apart from cadet staff. The next and final part of AMI for the Cadet Staff was the Staff Inspection.

Before the day of AMI, a lot of effort and planning went into ensuring the day went off without a hitch. Platoon Commanders reviewed NJROTC Knowledge with their classes and Cadet Staff reviewed and prepared the unit for inspection by LCDR Barnes. A substantial portion of the Cadet Staff Inspection was the PowerPoint Presentation. Each Staff member presented two - three slides, detailing their position on staff and in the unit, why they joined NJROTC, what they have done to arrive where they are now, and their plans following high school such as work, or military service. Our cadet staff were vigorously questioned by LCDR Barnes to assess how well they do their jobs and cadet staff provided thorough answers to all questions. Following the Staff Presentation, our Commanding Officer, Executive Officer, Operations Officer, Supply Officer, and Admin Officer were quizzed on their knowledge of CDMIS, our database for uniform/ribbon/rank tracking, diversity percentages, end of year report, and cadet records. The latter concluded the last part of the day for the cadet staff, and our guest inspector finished the day by meeting with the school administration and our NJROTC instructors. AMI was a success!
