Beliefs

- Students' learning needs are the primary focus of all decisions impacting the work of the school because each student is a valued individual with unique physical, social, emotional, and intellectual needs.
- A safe and physically comfortable environment promotes student learning.
- Teachers, administrators, parents, students, and the community share the responsibility for advancing the school's mission.
- Students learn in different ways and will be provided with a variety of instructional approaches to support their learning styles.
- Cultural diversity can increase students' understanding of different peoples and cultures.
- Students need to not only demonstrate their understanding of essential knowledge and skills but also to be actively involved in solving problems and producing quality work.
- A student's self-esteem is enhanced by positive relationships and mutual respect among and between students and staff.

Mission Statement

Wellington Community High School seeks to provide a safe environment conducive to promoting lifelong learners and productive citizens who contribute to the community as a whole.

Speech & Debate

Along with a return to the classroom after 19 months of COVID-related virtual learning, the Wellington Speech & Debate Team has resumed in-person weekend competition with a flourish.

At their first in-person competition in September, the Red Dawn Debaters enjoyed incredible success, taking home numerous accolades from the September PBCFL Congressional Debate Tournament at Suncoast. In first-year high school novice competition, Emma Gardner and Emma Segfeldt each placed third in their respective chambers, while three students – Olivia Winton, Patrick McDermott, and Paula Currea – each placed fourth. Taking fifth was Emilia Richards, and another trio of first-year debaters placed sixth: Madison Neltner, Alexandra Versailles, and Colin Capon. Andin Varsity Congress, both Samuel Johnson and Ewa Trynieszewski placed first overall, and Hannah Pahl took sixth. In addition, five students earned gavels as their chamber's top presiding officer – KJ Benham, Colin Gibson, Chelsea Gutierrez, Sofia Lynch, and Shaida Meier.

Wellington hosted the October PBCFL, where Wellington took first-place honors in Declamation (Ana Guillaume, with straight 1's) and Novice Oral Interpretation (Madison Neltner). In fact, Wellington took four of the top six spots in Novice OI, with Ayman Omar placing second, Stacy Joseph third, and Andreanna Wellington sixth. In addition, Hannah Pahl placed second in Varsity OI, Colin Gibson third in Varsity Extemp, Olivia Winton third in Declamation, and Emma Gardner fourth in Congress.

Wellington Speech & Debate enjoyed success at the November PBCFL at Park Vista. In Novice Dramatic Performance, Anneliese Leclef took first place. In Novice Public Forum Debate, the team of Emma Gardner & Patrick McDermott went 3-1 and placed fifth overall. In Oral Interpretation, Paula Currea took sixth place. In Congressional Debate, Ewa Trynieszewski placed first in her chamber and earned a Chamber's Choice Presiding Office gavel, while David Goldberg finished sixth in his chamber. In Extemporaneous Speaking, Samuel Johnson placed second and Simran Josan fourth.

Wellington fared extremely well at the inaugural National Civics and Debate Championship tournament in Orlando November 12-14. The tournament – Wellington's first out-of-area competition since March 2020 – saw 10 Red Dawn Debaters compete in four different events, which dealt with civics-related topics and arguments. In Congressional Debate, out of 130 competitors, Ray Estevez placed fifth and Lauren Beer took seventh. In addition, Jason Miller placed 19th. In Impromptu Speaking, Samuel Johnson took eighth place and Ray Estevez 15th. In Extemporaneous Debate, Jason Miller went 6-0 and took ninth place. And in Extemporaneous Sports Analysis, Samuel Johnson finished fourth overall. As a team, Wellington placed sixth in the overall tournament sweepstakes.

Wellington Speech & Debate took a leisurely stroll to its neighbor to the east, Palm Beach Central, and left the December PBCFL with an impressive number of accolades. The Red Dawn Debaters took the top three spots in Novice Oral Interpretation: Maria Ramirez (1st), Madison Neltner (2nd), and Karola Ortiz Rodriguez (3rd). In Dramatic Performance, Jaiden Lagalo-Blinston took first overall. Two Wolverines placed second in their respective Extemporaneous Speaking events: Adrian Perez-Rodriguez in Novice Extemp, and Samuel Johnson in Varsity Extemp. Wellington took third in two novice-specific debate events: Paula Currea in Novice Lincoln Douglas Debate, and the team of Emma Gardner & Patrick McDermott in Novice Public Forum Debate. In Novice Congressional Debate, Emma Segfeldt took third in her chamber, Elani Mohammed placed fourth, Arthur Hu-Manning took sixth, and Noor El Tohamy was named her chamber's top Presiding Officer. Sofia Lynch earned a gavel as her varsity senate's top Presiding Officer. While not taking home hardware, Carolina Aguilera scored a rare double in Congressional Debate, as she simultaneously judged and presided over a novice Congress House in the morning session. Chiara Mirazzi took second in Novice Informative Speaking.

Band

The Wellington High School Band and its members have had an outstanding start to our "Comeback Year," with many group and individual achievements to recognize. We have been so happy to play for live audiences again!

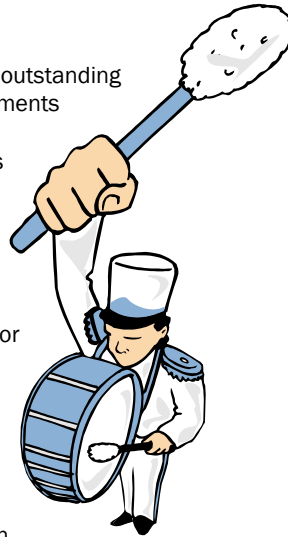

Our 'Mighty Wolverine Sound' Marching Band earned the school's 27th overall Superior rating at the Florida Bandmasters Association District Marching Assessment, held at Palm Beach Central HS on October 23rd. The band earned "A" grades and Superior ratings in every judged category. In preparation for this assessment, the MWS also performed in the Crown Jewel Marching Band Competition at Vero Beach HS on October 16th. During this event, the band earned Superior ratings in Music, Visual, Auxiliary and Percussion, and placed 1st in their class and 1st Runner Up for the entire event.

Senior Josef Woodhouse was selected for the Tri-State Honor Bands, which performed at Florida State University on December 5th and featured the top band students from Florida, Georgia, and Alabama. 3 of our Jazz Band members – junior Michael Levy, and sophomores Ezra Seelaus and Tobias Smith – were selected by audition for the Palm Beach All-County Jazz Bands, performing with the best high school jazz musicians in our area on November 11th. Ezra and Tobias were also selected by audition for the 2022 Florida All-State Bands, competing against the best high school musicians in the state. Tobias will perform with the 9-10 Concert Band, and Ezra made history as the first WHS student to make the All-State Jazz Band. Tobias was also accepted to the University of Miami Honor Band, which will perform on January 29th in Miami.

The WHS Wind Ensemble continued its annual tradition of a "Salute to Veterans" Concert on November 9th at the Wellington Amphitheater, and all of our bands presented our annual joint Winter Concert with the WHS Choruses on December 14th.

To support the WHS Band, the Wolverine Band Boosters Association has a Corporate Sponsorship Program. Donations of $500 annually include a Sponsorship Banner display on the front school fences, and donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowable by law. For more information and a sponsorship form, please visit our web site, www.whsband.com, or email sponsorship@whsband.com.

The WHS Band members and staff sincerely thank the entire Wellington community for its continued support, and wish everyone a Happy New Year! Please look for our upcoming performances on our website, www.whsband.com.

ELA

Sarah-Lyse Exume won 5th place in the Annual Palm Beach Poetry Festival High School Poetry Contest.

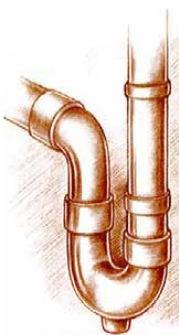

This is her entry:

THIS SIDE OF MY SKIN

By Sarah-Lyse Exume

On one I'm seen as a pioneer for freedom,
but here I'm a threat to safety.
The most exotic and diverse,
here persecuted and looked down upon,
treated as inferior.
My hair is considered a crest of beauty and grows
towards the sun,
but to some, it's considered raggedy and nappy
I come from the smartest and bravest of people, but here we are considered uneducated
and undeveloped
I speak with style and make people laugh,
but they say it's unprofessional.
I speak with confidence and earn my respect,
it's seen as being loud and angry.
We come up with amazing ideas, styles,
and things,
but credit is not given where it's due.
I walk by myself,
"Keep an eye out." "Be careful."
I get tears in my eyes,
I just want attention.
I open up and tell you my pain,
they laugh, say it's just for likes,
and toss it aside.
Whichever side you pick,
I hope it still allows you to see the real me.

News from the Visual Art Department

"Learning in the arts requires the ability and a willingness to surrender to the unanticipated possibilities of the work as it unfolds." E. Eisner.

The student artists and photographers have been busy creating and entering the many local, state, and national art competitions and exhibitions. These competitions/exhibitions are an important part of the art curriculum. They serve several purposes beyond just creating works that communicate with an audience. Seniors pursuing art in college have the opportunity to win scholarship money and build their resume. These competitions are also fundraising opportunities for the Art/Photo department as some of the competitions award money to the school's arts program.

Aleidy Barrera, Stephanie Cabrera, Daniela Cano, Maya Crawford, Jeremy Fudyma-Powers, Faith Henrique, Lillian Paulitz, Ava Powell, Elisa Rodriguez, Isabella Sanchez-Vizcaino, Taylor Sardinias, Ryan Shea, Azaria Williams are representing Wellington High School art department in the 2021 Palm Beach

County School District Virtual Winter Art Dazzle Exhibit. https://docs.google.com/presentation/d/12G7maMi2leA2d2uTslc3txsAIB4l-WiUFjbY24DtW_rl/present?slide=id.p

The National Art Honor Society and Art Club members put in many volunteer hours designing and painting cornhole boards for X-Port Paws, Inc.'s fundraiser cornhole tournament. They are now working on the "Rockin' Robot" School Art project for the South Florida Fair.

Zabdi Aristizabal, Ashlyn Nutter, Amanda Rivera art works have been chosen to represent Wellington High School at the Palm Beach County Art Teachers Association's K - 12 South Florida Fair Exhibit. When you are at the fair do not forget to check out the student art exhibit (Building 4) and the Wellington High school Rockin Robot in the main pavilion.

Positive Behavior

We have implemented two positive behavior programs at Wellington Community High School: Wellington Way and Character Counts. Students are being recognized for the positive choices they are making while they are on campus. Please make sure your child is following our Universal Guidelines every day they are on campus. Kindness Matters 365

Kindness Matters 365 is a new club established this year with the purpose of equipping students with knowledge and skills for their social and emotional well-being. Students are encouraged to discover how to become more compassionate to both themselves and others by learning about self-awareness, self-navigation, social awareness, and much more.

The club especially focuses on social activism and was able to establish committees which club members joined based on the social issue they were most passionate about. The committees include education, gender and sexuality equality, mental health awareness, racial equality, environmentalism, and animal rights. Throughout these committees members will research guest speakers and volunteer opportunities for the club to participate in as well as raise awareness for these different issues within these lenses.

This semester was full of group activities that focused on what they hope to achieve within their committees and what impacts they will strive to make on the campus and society. Next semester, KM365 will be making an impact on our community through different supply drives and letter collections for active soldiers as well as additional volunteer opportunities involved with each committee.

MONEY! MONEY! MONEY!

Only three years old, one of the most beneficial classes now offered has become a student favorite: Personal Financial Literacy Honors. An organized semester-long curriculum includes units on Jobs/ Careers & Interviewing; Budgeting; Taxes, Banking; Credit & Debit Cards; Credit Scores; Investing; Car Insurance and more. This is the class that we wish we had before leaving high school as most of our parents did not have the time (or patience) to teach us these invaluable lessons. This course is chock full of real-life information that students will learn and eventually put to use as they become knowledgeable consumers and participating members of a global workforce and economy. Although most everything now can be done digitally with one click of a button or a swipe to the left or right, computers cannot replace the human thought/decision-making process or weighing pros and cons when it comes to financial decisions. This course is taught by a highly-effective teacher holding several certifications, including Business Ed, and 35+ years of knowledge and personal experience as a business professional and educator. This course is in high demand with limited seating so get your student registered ASAP!
