WINDY HILL MIDDLE SCHOOL

From Your Principal

Hello Wolf Family!

I hope this message finds you well as we work through state assessments while making preparations to wrap up the 2018-19 school year, as hard as that is to believe! Please keep in mind that students will be taking their state assessment throughout the month of May. This includes the Math and Reading FSA, Algebra EOC, Science NGSSS assessments, and Civics EOC. Please visit our website to see all testing dates, as well as other important school events!

With the closing of the school year, we prepare for a number of celebratory events, including Spring band, chorus and theater productions and our send off to our 8th graders, Bon Voyage!

As we close this school year, I would like to remind you to continue to visit the school website and listen for future callout messages that will include important summer information, including next year's school supply lists and summer work for students. Please keep in mind that school will start on August 12, 2019.

Thank you for being part of this amazing school year and we are already planning for next year. Our focus next year will continue to be authentic literacy. This entails affording our students opportunities to read, write, think and talk, in every classroom, everyday! You can support authentic literacy at home by encouraging your child to read throughout the summer, both fiction and non-fiction text. Talk to your child about what they are reading. We appreciate your support!

Be sure to follow Windy Hill on Twitter, with our Twitter handle @WindyHillWolves.

We are, ONE PACK!

Respectfully, William P. Roberts

¡Hola familia de lobos!

¡Espero que este mensaje le encuentre bien a medida que trabajamos en los exámenes estatales mientras hacemos los preparativos para concluir el año escolar 2018-19, por muy difícil que sea crearlo! Por favor, tenga en cuenta que los estudiantes tomarán su prueba estatal durante todo el mes de mayo. Esto incluye la FSA de matemáticas y lectura, EOC de álgebra, evaluaciones de ciencias NGSSS y EOC de derechos civiles. ¡Visite nuestro sitio web para ver todas las fechas de exámenes, así como otros eventos escolares importantes!

Con la culminación del año escolar, nos preparamos para una serie de eventos de fin de curso, los cuales incluyen la Concierto de Primavera por la banda escolar, el coro y producciones teatrales, y nuestra despedida a nuestros estudiantes de 8º grado, ¡Bon Voyage (Buen Viaje)!

Al cerrar este año escolar, me gustaría recordarle que continúe visitando el sitio web de la escuela y escuche los futuros mensajes de llamada que incluirán información importante sobre el verano, incluidas las listas de útiles escolares del próximo año y tareas de verano para los estudiantes. Por favor, recuerde que la escuela comenzará el 12 de agosto de 2019.

Gracias por ser parte de este increíble año escolar y ya estamos planificando para el próximo año. Nuestro enfoque el próximo año seguirá siendo conocimiento auténtico. ¡Esto implica ofrecer a nuestros estudiantes oportunidades para leer, escribir, pensar y hablar, en cada salón de clases, todos los días! Puede apoyar este esfuerzo en el hogar alentando a su hijo a leer durante todo el verano, tanto textos de ficción como de no ficción. Hable con su hijo sobre lo que está leyendo. ¡Agradecemos su apoyo!

Asegúrese de seguir a Windy Hill en Twitter, con nuestra cuenta de Twitter @WindyHillWolves.

Somos, UNA MANADA!

Respetuosamente, William P. Roberts

Birthday Shout Outs

Due to the popularity of Windy Hill Middle School's "Birthday Shout Outs," WHMS has decided to provide another option for celebrating your student's birthday on the Hill. Starting fall 2019, you will be able to show the community the importance of your child's birth by announcing their birthday on our school's marquee. For $20, their name will be displayed for 5 days, giving them a truly unique birthday gift. We will also be continuing "Birthday Shout Outs" during morning or afternoon announcements for $10. Both options can be enjoyed by your child for $25. This fundraiser will provide incentives for students and teachers. Thank you for your support.

WHMS Culinary Arts Department

It is hard to believe that the school year is over already. It seems like students just started. Throughout the school year, students in the culinary arts classes learned a lot about safety, sanitation, how to read recipes and much more. My hope is that they take what they have learned in class and apply it to home and make you amazing treats this summer! I want to thank parents for their support while I had the privilege to teach your students about my passion for culinary. It has been a busy and great school year.

This year both advanced and semester students worked their first job at Holiday on the Hill. It was a huge success and students learned how to run a small business. We even ran out of hot chocolate! The students had a great time making different cookies, puppy treats, and homemade hot chocolate. It was a great night all around and I cannot wait for the next one during the holiday season.

A big shout out to the 8th grade culinary students that successfully passed the industry certification exam. This is a college level exam students take them demonstrate their knowledge of food safety and sanitation. This also helps with them applying for jobs in the food industry in high school; this is good for five years. Congratulations to: Jasmine Campiti, Maichelle Castaneda, Wanda Celestine, Joseph Chiofalo, Kennedy Feagan, Kaelyn Gurdak, James Karowski, Erin LeGros, Ethan Miller, Lindsey Persaud, Michelle Pooran, Grace Salamone, Amaya Sukhlall, Samuel Taylor, Lauren Vendrell.

Students that applied for the new 7th grade intermediate culinary class for the 2019-2020 school year will find out if they have been placed in the class when they receive their schedules in the fall. We had over 80 students apply for this class, which is amazing! Students that are placed in this class will take the Food Handler certification exam and will help operate the food market in our school. Those that do not get into the intermediate class for 7th grade may still have the opportunity to be in the regular 7th grade semester culinary class in either the fall or spring.

Upcoming 8th grade students that applied for the advanced culinary class will also find out if they were selected when they receive their schedules in the fall. Students that have been selected for this class will have an intense, but, fun and exciting year in culinary. They will be working towards their industry certification during the first semester. Second semester, students work on food trucks and career projects. They take what they learned in the semester class and apply that learning to all aspects of this class. They also operate the Wolves Café, Wolfies Bites and Beverages, and much more.

Our first fundraiser for the 2019-2020 school year is our caramel apples. These will be sold in late September through the beginning of October. All fundraiser through the culinary department are made in house. We do not order from large companies as this allows students to make a multitude of items and gives them practice in working a business as well. All fundraisers are available for purchase through students and our online school store throughout the school year. Look for more information for our delicious treats as the school year rolls on.

Keep a look out in upcoming newsletters for all the latest information regarding culinary!

Summer Reading

Summer is coming quickly and even though students and parents are looking forward to enjoying the time off, it is important you encourage your child to continue reading. Below are some strategies to help your child connect in the reading process.

1. Encourage your child to enroll in your local library's summer reading program.
It is never too late to have your child join a library. Some libraries have programs that will reward students with prizes and/or giveaways.
2. Find a reading list that corresponds with your child's age or interests.
Ask your child what they are interested in reading about. It doesn't matter what interest your child has, there are books music, sports, nature, magic, etc. You can also access the internet for reading lists on many different subjects/ topics.
3. Get them hooked on a great series.
There are many book series out there students have already taken a liking to, for example, The Hunger Games, Divergent, Twilight, Harry Potter, Stranded, Wildwood Chronicles, The Keepers Trilogy, The Mysterious Benedict Society, Half Upon a Time. If your child has read the first book in a series, encourage them to continue reading the books that follow.
4. Mix it up by practicing foreign language skills.
Edutopia has a great link for playing games with your child, whether it be perfecting their English language skills or brushing up on a foreign language they took during the school year. Click the following link for fun and exciting games: <https://www.edutopia.org/discussion/12-fun-speaking-games-language-learners>.
5. Recognize the ties between music and literature.
Help your child understand the connection to their favorite lyrics from a song and poetry. The same principles and creative aspects that are used in poetry and literature are also used in music. Encourage your child to write a song, or express their thoughts on the lyrics. This will help with literacy building.
6. Suggest keeping a travel diary.
If your family is headed on vacation during the summer, have your child write about their adventures. Writing about their adventures will help promote better writing skills.
7. Give your teen a private, cool reading space.
Motivate your child to read by providing them with quiet space to read. You don't have to rearrange the furniture for this, but clearing out a small space in the corner of a room will do the trick. Add a bean bag or their favorite chair to the corner where they can have a spot of their own to relax and dive into their favorite book.
8. Take advantage of fun educational apps.
The following link includes some educational apps to use on an iPad or iPod, <https://itunes.apple.com/us/developer/mcgraw-hill-school-education/id413312889>. You may also want to check out the following websites if your child does not have access to an Apple device. Nat Geo for kids- www.kids.nationalgeographic.com, Into the Book- www.reading.ecb.org, Fun Brain- www.funbrain.com, Storyline Online- www.storylineonline.net, and Highlights Kids- www.highlights.com.
9. Read with your child.
The best way to connect with your child is to read with them. Take the opportunity to read the same book together and encourage discussion about characters, plot, setting, etc. Reading with your child sets a powerful example of what it means to be a good reader and thinker.
